GROW OUR INDUSTRY

WHY YOUR AMIA MEMBERSHIP IS IMPORTANT

It is now more important than ever to become a member of AMIA. We rely on the support of our members to undertake many of the activities that make a difference to you. Our priority is to represent Australian mango growers.

Your profitability and success as a business is at the core of everything we do. We want this to continue so we can build a strong and profitable future and achieve the best outcomes for the industry. We cannot do this without your support.

By becoming a member of AMIA you're doing your part to ensure we have adequate resources for the mango industry and we can represent your best interests. The greater the support we receive from you, the stronger your organisation and industry will be.

THE ROLE OF AMIA

AMIA was established in 2000 by growers and wholesalers who saw a clear need for a body that represented the entire Australian mango industry. Since the organisation's inception we have represented you and undertaken activities on your behalf to build a strong and robust industry.

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT

Thanks to your support, the Australian mango industry has advanced considerably. We've been working across a range of activities that will positively impact your business; with a focus on delivering outcomes from the Mango Strategic Investment Plan. These include:

- Giving a voice to the mango industry through impressive communications—quarterly magazine Mango Matters, weekly in-season e-newsletter My Mango and monthly off-season e-newsletter The Slice. As well as through digital resources.
- Hiring two new Industry Development Officers to provide on-farm support and services, including dry matter testing in orchards.
- Providing weekly crop forecasts and price reports, which have been developed to provide clarity and full visibility to the entire supply chain.
- We have continued to work on growing our export industry.
- Ensuring there is an ongoing proactive approach to biosecurity to minimise risks.
- Continuing to work with federal, state and territory governments, and industry organisations on important industry issues.
- Driving the industry marketing campaign to ensure marketing and promotion activities occur across the season.
- Identifying, participating or leading other research and development opportunities.

With your support, we will ensure work across a range of activities continues, which will deliver real outcomes and benefits to the industry.
