

DAY 1

AUSTRALIAN
MANGOES

Queensland
Government

MANGO BIOSECURITY PREPAREDNESS WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Wednesday 7 May 2025

09:00 - 17:00

Owen J Wordsworth Room

Queensland University of Technology,
Gardens Point Campus, Brisbane CBD

Time	Topic	Speaker
09:00	Opening, welcome and housekeeping
09:20	Introductions
OUR FOCUS ON BIOSECURITY
09:40	The essential need for collaboration and partnerships	Trevor Dunmall, Australian Mangoes
10:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>What is preparedness?</li><li>Is preparedness different for different sectors/people?</li></ul>	Interactive session
10:20	Morning Tea
PREPAREDNESS AND THE IMPACT ON TRADE
10:50	Preparedness in Action	Brett Jackson, QDPI
	The strategic direction for Interstate Trade	Lois Ransom, former Australian Chief Plant Protection Officer
	Developing secure pathways	Tong Chen, DEECA
12:00	Lunch
SECURE PATHWAYS FOR TRADE
13:00	Mapping a secure pathway	Interactive session
13:30	Opportunities for secure pathways/protocols to be developed - initially focus on interstate trade - share and describe the challenges and roadblocks	Small group discussions
14:50	Afternoon Tea
15:20	Addressing challenges and roadblocks	Interactive session
16:00	When no one cares - How do we address the issues caused by abandoned orchards and other 'feral' crops	Interactive session
17:00	Social drinks

RSVP to Trevor Dunmall ceo@mangoes.net.au or 0400 808 689

Registrations close Thursday 17 April

Acknowledgement:

We gratefully acknowledge the financial contribution by QDPI to fund this workshop, and QUT for providing the workshop venue.

DAY 2

AUSTRALIAN
MANGOES

Queensland
Government

MANGO BIOSECURITY PREPAREDNESS WORKSHOP PROGRAM

Thursday 8 May 2025

08:45 - 16:30

Gibson Room

Queensland University of Technology,
Gardens Point Campus, Brisbane CBD

Time	Topic	Speaker
08:45	Recap of day 1
IMPROVING BIOSECURITY WHERE IT MATTERS
09:00	Close encounters - What are we seeing at and close to the border?	Todd Greenwood, DAFF
09:30	Regional and orchard/business biosecurity plans - essential components	Small group discussions
10:30	Morning Tea
COLLABORATION AND PERSPECTIVE
11:00	How commercial nurseries manage biosecurity and trade	John McDonald, GLI
	An Ausveg perspective - the focus of the Big Veg/ Vegwatch project	Rose Daniel, Ausveg
	Preparing for an incursion - understanding ORC's and the importance of keeping business data/records	Sally Heaton, NTDAF
	Communication and engagement in the biosecurity space	Louise Morgan, QDPI
12:30	Lunch
PATHWAYS TO A BETTER FUTURE
13:20	What does our biosecurity system really need?	Panel discussion
13:50	Engagement: Describe what biosecurity engagement activities have had a real impact - what can we learn?	Small group breakout session: Workshop participants choose one or multiple topics to contribute to.  (Afternoon tea available throughout session)
	Collaboration: What are actions we can take to improve collaboration?
	Abandoned orchards and feral crops: Finding the pathway to a solution.
	Traceability: How important is traceability in managing an incursion and what information should government, growers and industry maintain?
15:10	Report back and share ideas
15:40	Workshop summary and next steps
16:00	Close

RSVP to Trevor Dunmall ceo@mangoes.net.au or 0400 808 689

Registrations close Thursday 17 April

Acknowledgement:

We gratefully acknowledge the financial contribution by QDPI to fund this workshop, and QUT for providing the workshop venue.